The History

*In 1887, at the height of the British rule, colonial soldiers began to make their own cigars from local tobacco. The British fondness for legendary Nepalese fighters inspired them to name their cigars "Gurkhas." Gurkha cigars, steeped in legend and history created more than a century ago has been reborn. Today Gurkha cigars is one of the most famous brands of luxury cigars in the world. Marked by their extraordinary quality and premium blends of tobacco, Gurkha cigars are known for limited release and rare tobacco products with outstanding, artistically-oriented packaging. Gurkha Cigars 15 year aged Cellar Reserve was rated number one in the world in blind tasting in 2016.

Gurkha is also known as the 'Rolls Royce' of cigars and is enjoyed by many of the world's elite including members of Royalty, Military, leading government officials, and celebrities.

The Cigars

Rated Number 1 in the World 2016

The Gurkha Cigar Reserve is an absolutely flawless cigar. It uses the finest quality 15-year-aged tobacco comprised of an oily Criollo 1998 wrapper that combines an aged Dominican oler binder with a 15-year-old Dominican filler. Housed in unique wooden boxes that aesthetically evoke a maturing wine barrel, the Cigar Reserve is a delicious medium to full-bodied cigar that is full of flavor and complexity. It is incredibly worth the demand it commands. Another masterpiece created by Kaizad Hansotia.
